San Diego County Crime Stoppers is joining forces with the San Diego Police Department Central Division detectives to help apprehend the suspect responsible for several thefts that occurred between May 10 and June 20, 2009 in the Gaslamp area.

Christopher Glasby (10-29-74) has been identified as the suspect in several purse and wallet thefts from Gaslamp area businesses. Glasby enters the restaurant or business and distracts the hostess or receptionist by asking for a job application or turning in a resume. As the employee leaves the front of the business, Glasby steals a wallet or purse from that area. Glasby then uses the victim's credit cards to purchase Visa gift cards and uses the gift cards until they no longer have any value. Employees of businesses in the Gaslamp and downtown San Diego areas should not leave their wallets or purses in areas which are easily accessible to the public.
